Impact Report

A summary of documented YouthConnect Network activity to date, the definitions behind each figure, and the limits of what this report covers.

Scope and reporting period

This report covers documented YouthConnect Network activity from the launch of our founding chapter through August 2, 2026. Figures come from chapter activity records. Every figure below is reported only where a chapter record exists; no figure is projected, modelled, or extrapolated.

> Scope note: YouthConnect Network is an early-stage, youth-led initiative operating from a Delaware base. This report reflects a small number of chapters and should be read as a founding-period baseline, not as evidence of network-wide scale.

Documented figures

600+ homes reached	Distinct households that received direct outreach through events, check-ins, deliveries, or personal invitations. Each household counted once per campaign.
3x increase in older adult participation	Attendance by older adult residents at comparable community activities, compared against the documented pre-launch baseline for the founding community.
$10,000+ value of school supplies raised	Combined retail value of donated school supplies and cash contributions raised for local students, based on documented donation records.
10+ events and service projects	Completed community events and service projects delivered with HOA and local partner support.
100+ youth and residents engaged	Distinct individuals who took part in an activity or a substantive engagement conversation.

Completed project categories

- School supply drives supporting local students.
- Neighborhood community events open to all residents.
- Intergenerational programs bringing youth and older adult residents together.
- Resident check-ins and door-to-door outreach.
- Resident feedback collection informing later activities.

Community outcomes

- Repeat attendance at community activities within the founding community.
- A functioning youth-led committee recognized by the host HOA.
- A regular channel for residents to raise needs and see them acted on.
- Documented partner relationships with an HOA and local organizations.

Youth leadership outcomes

- Young people holding named leadership roles with real decision-making responsibility.
- Youth leading meetings, planning projects, and presenting to adult bodies.
- Practical experience in outreach, facilitation, logistics, and impact reporting.
- A defined pathway from first service project to chapter leadership.

Resident engagement outcomes

- Structured feedback collected after activities and used to shape what comes next.
- Older adult residents specifically invited into community life rather than assumed to opt in.
- Direct household outreach as the default, rather than notice-board announcements alone.

What this report does not claim

- It does not claim multi-state or national scale.
- It does not claim independently audited or third-party evaluated results.
- It does not claim outcomes for communities where no chapter has operated.
- It does not report individual-level or personally identifiable resident data.

Methodology

Chapters record activity using the YouthConnect Network Impact Tracking Sheet, applying the shared metric definitions published in that document. Records are reviewed before any figure is published. Where a figure is a documented count, it is stated as a count; where a comparison is made against a baseline, both the baseline and the current figure are held in the chapter record.
